AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF AN APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

I, Clinton Blauser, being first duly sworn, hereby depose and state as follows:

INTRODUCTION AND AGENT BACKGROUND

1. I make this affidavit in support of an application for a search warrant under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41 and 18 U.S.C. §§ 2703(c)(1)(A) for information about the location of the cellular telephone assigned call number 414-242-8298 (the “Target Cell Phone”), whose service provider is Verizon Wireless (“Service Provider”) a wireless telephone service provider headquartered at 180 Washington Valley Rd., Bedminster, NJ 07921. The Target Cell Phone is described herein and in Attachment A, and the location information to be seized is described herein and in Attachment B.

2. Because this warrant application seeks the prospective collection of information, including cell-site location information, that may fall within the statutory definitions of information collected by a “pen register” and/or “trap and trace device,” see 18 U.S.C. § 3127(3) & (4), I also make this affidavit in support of an application by the United States of America for an order pursuant to 18 U.S.C §§ 3122 and 3123, authorizing the installation and use of pen registers and trap and trace devices (“pen-trap devices”) to record, decode, and/or capture dialing, routing, addressing, and signaling information associated with each communication to or from the Target Cell Phone.

3. I am employed as a Deputy with the United States Marshals Service (USMS) and have held that position for over thirteen years. Prior to that, I spent three years working for the Allen County Sheriff’s Department in Allen County, Indiana, as a Police Officer and a Confinement Officer. As part of my duties in my current position, I conduct investigations to locate federal and state fugitives.

4. The facts in this affidavit come from my personal observations, my training and experience, my review of documents, and information obtained from other agents and witnesses. This affidavit is intended to show merely that there is probable cause for the requested warrant and does not set forth all my knowledge about this matter.

5. On April 4, 2024, a criminal complaint was filed, and an arrest warrant was issued, for Brandon Mickey (DOB: 11/27/1995) for the following charge: Escape from Federal Custody, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 751(a).

6. There is probable cause to believe that the location information described in Attachment B will assist law enforcement in arresting Mickey who is a “person to be arrested” within the meaning of Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41(c)(4).

7. The court has jurisdiction to issue the proposed warrant because it is a “court of competent jurisdiction” as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2711. Specifically, the Court is a district court of the United States that has jurisdiction over the offense being investigated, see 18 U.S.C. § 2711(3)(A)(i).

PROBABLE CAUSE

8. The United States, including the United States Marshals Service, is conducting a criminal investigation of Brandon Mickey (DOB: 1/27/1995) for Escape from Federal Custody.

9. On April 11, 2024, Parson’s Halfway House Program Director, Kim Tardin, provided Deputy Blauser with Mickey’s last known phone number: 414-242-8298. Deputy Blauser conducted multiple law enforcement database checks to attempt to further connect the target number to Mickey. Deputy Blauser ran the target number through the Wisconsin Department of Corrections IC solutions and found inmate Angelo Gray (Inmate ID574743) contacting the target number 4 times between 2/17/2024 and 4/6/2024. Deputy Blauser listened to the 15-minute conversation on 4/6/2024 between Inmate Gray and the target number, which was after Mickey's federal Escape arrest warrant was issued. Deputy Blauser confirmed that the voice associated to the target number was a male voice. During the conversation, the male voice using the target number stated, "I got three years in papers" and stated, "They gave me for halfway house was twelve months." Deputy Blauser knew that Mickey was sentenced on 9/8/2017 to 152 months imprisonment and 3 years of Supervised Release. On December 7, 2023, Mickey was released to Parson's Halfway House in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to serve out the remaining 12 months of his sentence. During the conversation with Inmate Gray, the male voice made comments about "Reggie Miller" and the Pacers.

10. On May 15, 2024, Deputy Blauser obtained historical tolls for the target number, and it was communicating with multiple Indianapolis, Indiana, area numbers and was active through the date searched.

11. On June 24, 2024, Deputy Blauser conducted another check in the Wisconsin Department of Corrections IC Solutions for the target number and found Inmate Gray communicated with the target number on 6/23/2024 at 18:33 hours. Deputy Blauser confirmed that the male voice associated to the target number was the same voice as the call on 4/6/2024. During the conversation, Inmate Gray asked the male voice believed to be Mickey, if he was still down there with Reggie Miller, which Deputy Blauser believes that Inmate Gray is referring to Mickey's location being in Indianapolis, Indiana.

12. Based upon my training, experience, and the investigation to date, your affiant is aware that obtaining historical location data for a fugitive's cell phone can reveal patterns of movement and locations where the fugitive may be residing that will help case agents apprehend the fugitive.

13. In my training and experience, I have learned that Verizon Wireless (“the Service Provider”) is a company that provides cellular communications service to the general public. I also know that providers of cellular communications service have technical capabilities that allow them to collect and generate information about the locations of the cellular devices to which they provide service, including cell-site data, also known as “tower/face information” or “cell tower/sector records.” Cell-site data identifies the “cell towers” (i.e., antenna towers covering specific geographic areas) that received a radio signal from the cellular device and, in some cases, the “sector” (i.e., faces of the towers) to which the device connected. These towers are often a half-mile or more apart, even in urban areas, and can be 10 or more miles apart in rural areas. Furthermore, the tower closest to a wireless device does not necessarily serve every call made to or from that device. Accordingly, cell-site data provides an approximate general location of the cellular device.

Cell-Site Data

14. Based on my training and experience, I know that the Service Provider can collect cell-site data on a prospective basis about the Target Cell Phone. Based on my training and experience, I know that for each communication a cellular device makes, its wireless service provider can typically determine: (1) the date and time of the communication; (2) the telephone numbers involved, if any; (3) the cell tower to which the customer connected at the beginning of the communication; (4) the cell tower to which the customer was connected at the end of the communication; and (5) the duration of the communication. I also know that wireless providers such as the Service Provider typically collect and retain cell-site data pertaining to cellular devices to which they provide service in their normal course of business in order to use this information for various business-related purposes.

E-911 Phase II / GPS Location Data

15. I know that some providers of cellular telephone service have technical capabilities that allow them to collect and generate E-911 Phase II data, also known as GPS data or latitude-longitude data. E-911 Phase II data provides relatively precise location information about the cellular telephone itself, either via GPS tracking technology built into the phone or by triangulating on the device's signal using data from several of the provider's cell towers. As discussed above, cell-site data identifies the "cell towers" (i.e., antenna towers covering specific geographic areas) that received a radio signal from the cellular telephone and, in some cases, the "sector" (i.e., faces of the towers) to which the telephone connected. These towers are often a half-mile or more apart, even in urban areas, and can be 10 or more miles apart in rural areas. Furthermore, the tower closest to a wireless device does not necessarily serve every call made to or from that device. Accordingly, cell-site data is typically less precise than E-911 Phase II data. Based on my training and experience, I know that the Service Provider can collect E-911 Phase II data about the location of the Target Cell Phones, including by initiating a signal to determine the location of the Target Cell Phones on the Service Provider's network or with such other reference points as may be reasonably available.

Pen-Trap Data

16. Based on my training and experience, I know each cellular device has one or more unique identifiers embedded inside it. Depending on the cellular network and the device, the embedded unique identifiers for a cellular device could take several different forms, including an Electronic Serial Number ("ESN"), a Mobile Electronic Identity Number ("MEIN"), a Mobile Identification Number ("MIN"), a Subscriber Identity Module ("SIM"), a Mobile Subscriber Integrated Services Digital Network Number ("MSISDN"), an International Mobile Subscriber Identifier ("IMSI"), or an International Mobile Equipment Identity ("IMEI").

The unique identifiers – as transmitted from a cellular device to a cellular antenna or tower – can be recorded by pen-trap devices and indicate the identity of the cellular device making the communication without revealing the communication's content.

Subscriber Information

17. Based on my training and experience, I know that wireless providers such as the Service Provider typically collect and retain information about their subscribers in their normal course of business. This information can include basic personal information about the subscriber, such as name and address, and the method(s) of payment (such as credit card account number) provided by the subscriber to pay for wireless communication service. I also know that wireless providers such as the Service Provider typically collect and retain information about their subscribers' use of the wireless service, such as records about calls or other communications sent or received by a particular device and other transactional records, in their normal course of business. In my training and experience, this information may constitute evidence of the crimes under investigation because the information can be used to identify the Target Cell Phones' user or users and may assist in the identification of co-conspirators and/or victims.

AUTHORIZATION REQUEST

18. Based on the foregoing, I request that the Court issue the proposed warrant, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2703(c) and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41.

19. I further request that the Court direct the Service Provider to disclose to the government any information described in Section I of Attachment B that is within its possession, custody, or control.

20. I also request that the Court direct the Service Provider to furnish the government all information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the collection of the information described in Attachment B unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the Service Provider's services, including by initiating a signal to determine the location of the Target Cell Phone on the Service Provider's network or with such other reference points as may be reasonably available, and at such intervals and times directed by the government. The government shall reasonably compensate the Service Provider for reasonable expenses incurred in furnishing such facilities or assistance.

21. I further request, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3103a(b) and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41(f)(3), that the Court authorize the officer executing the warrant to delay notice until 30 days after the collection authorized by the warrant has been completed. There is reasonable cause to believe that providing immediate notification of the warrant may have an adverse result, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2705. Providing immediate notice to the subscriber or user of the Target Cell Phone would seriously jeopardize the ongoing investigation, as such a disclosure would give that person an opportunity to destroy evidence, change patterns of behavior, notify confederates, and flee from prosecution. See 18 U.S.C. § 3103a(b)(1). As further specified in Attachment B, which is incorporated into the warrant, the proposed search warrant does not authorize the seizure of any tangible property. See 18 U.S.C. § 3103a(b)(2). Moreover, to the extent that the warrant authorizes the seizure of any wire or electronic communication (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2510) or any stored wire or electronic information, there is reasonable necessity for the seizure for the reasons set forth above. See 18 U.S.C. § 3103a(b)(2).

22. Because the warrant will be served on the Service Provider, who will then compile the requested records at a time convenient to it, reasonable cause exists to permit the execution of the requested warrant at any time in the day or night. I further request that the Court authorize execution of the warrant at any time of day or night, owing to the potential need to locate the Target Cell Phone outside of daytime hours.
